Jim Sutro volunteered to chair our committee to nominate new officers. He will be assisted by Don Wright and Bob Rettenbacher

Grand Knight's Corner by Terry Smith

A busy February as we partnered with the WISHES on the Valentines Chicken & Polenta Dinner Dance for the expressed purpose of purchasing an A/V system for the Old Hall. We made over $ 1,100.00 towards our goal of $2,500.00.

What a meal! Thanks to head chef, Bob Fernandez , sous chef, Jim Sutro, polenta master, Charles Hoezel , prep Steve Frost, Master Chef and saucier, Leonard Stone and myself. A lot of fun in the kitchen as the Silver Oak Cabernet resonated. Dessert Chef, Mike Minasi outdid himself with three different desserts. What a dance with DJ Nick spinning all the oldies. You should have seen the Osegueras and Bill and Teresita Villoria on the dance floor. Marvelous. Great to see Alan and Genie Lorenz there.

Lets get right back on the bicycle and make the St. Patrick's Dinner memorable. Brian McNamara and Bob Rettenbacher are co-chairs for this event. They have the proper amount of people for set up and Don Wright has his cooking team. I'll run the bar. I know John Candelori and Dave Podwojski will sell the raffle tickets as usual. We usually have two door people for a half an hour, maybe Bob Pinto and Jim Holley. These two great knights are going to do the Soup Kitchen for Friday, March 26th prior to Stations of the Cross . Now, if we get at least sixty knights and their friends and lovers to attend, we can sell out this event early. Come on , lets do it. GK Terry
