

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 1, 2010

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart.-- Psalm 90:12

VALUES TO LIVE BY

Today's scriptures contain some catch phrases that are still quite familiar in our world: "All is vanity," and "Eat, drink, and be merry" are both scriptural in origin. In the same way that it is easy to pray last week's Lord's Prayer thoughtlessly, it is easy to let the potent passages of scripture that are built on these common sayings glide right off our slick ears.

Last week's scriptures instructed us to listen attentively to the Lord, so that we might pray carefully. Our listening and our prayer are intimately connected. In the same way, this week we learn that our values and our living are connected as well. It has become quite common to ask, "Do you own your possessions or do they own you?" Like the familiar maxims from today's readings, we might be tempted to quote this saying flippantly, and think that in the quoting of it we have truly considered it, perhaps lived it. Not true, Qoheleth, Paul, and Jesus tell us today. It is not wrong to treasure or cherish things of earth or of our own humanity; it is only wrong when those things we cherish are not of God, are not of the self-giving Christ. (c) Copyright, J. S. As the Catholic Community of Our Lady of the Pillar, we recognize that through Baptism and Eucharist
we are called to build up the Body of Christ

To accomplish this, we will:

*Place Word and Eucharist as our center
Involve ourselves in the Faith Community and invite others to share our Faith
Continue to grow and mature in Faith as individuals and as a Parish Community
Provide Quality Religious Education for our children, youth and adults
Facilitate Communication and Mutual Respect
Pray for, Love, and Serve one another*

"To Be Rich On What Matters To God"

Jesus with his message and gospel is always questioning our human ways of seeing things. We are in a society fully centered on material things; we all strive and work to have enough goods and money that makes us feel insecurity. But at the same time, we all are constantly confronted to our own frailty and poverty when we find ourselves in front of situations that we are not able to control. Situations like sickness that will stop us from living the life we want to live; thieves may show up and take away our belongings. Jesus wants us to worry and work for goods and values that give inner joy and peace, that, nobody can take away from us. He wants us to treasure and be rich of values that no thief can steal from us. Imitating Jesus attitude of love and service to others is what matters to God.

Fr. Gabriel Flores

"Ser rico de lo que vale ante Dios"

Jesús con sus palabras y su mensaje siempre viene a poner en cuestión nuestras maneras de ver las cosas. Estamos en un mundo y en una sociedad que da muchísima importancia a los bienes materiales; todos corremos y nos afanamos por acumular dinero y cosas que sentimos nos dan seguridad. A pesar de todo continuamente hacemos la experiencia de nuestra fragilidad y de nuestra pobreza extrema ya que hay cosas que no podemos controlar; no sabemos si de un momento a otro nuestro pobre y frágil cuerpo puede ser víctima de alguna enfermedad que nos impida poder seguir trabajando y llevando una vida como quisiéramos; también puede suceder que en cualquier momento un ladrón puede entrar en nuestra casa y llevarse nuestras pertenencias. Jesús quiere que nos preocupemos y nos esforcemos por aquellos valores que nadie nos puede robar, quiere que busquemos a atesorar una riqueza que no nos quite la paz interior sino que nos llene de alegría. La alegría que da el imitar a Jesús hacienda actos de servicio y de amor a los demás nada ni nadie nos la podrá quitar.

P. Gabriel Flores

VALORES PARA VIVIR

Hoy el mensaje de las Escrituras contiene algunas frases todavía familiares en nuestro mundo: "Todo es vanidad" y "come, bebe y sé feliz" tienen su origen en la Biblia. Así como resulta fácil rezar el Padre Nuestro sin pensar, también es fácil dejar que los potentes mensajes bíblicos que se fundan en dichos de sentido común se deslicen por nuestros resbaladizos oídos.

El mensaje bíblico de la semana pasada nos instruyó a escuchar atentamente al Señor, para que podamos rezar con cuidado. Nuestro oír y nuestro rezar están íntimamente ligados. De igual manera, esta semana aprendemos que nuestros valores y nuestra vida también están ligados. Se ha tornado común preguntar: "¿Eres amor de tus posesiones o son ellas las que te poseen?" Al igual que las máximas de las lecturas de hoy, podemos sentirnos tentados a citarlas sin más, y pensar que al hacerlo verdaderamente las consideramos, y tal vez las vivimos. No es verdad, nos dicen hoy Qohelet, Pablo y Jesús. No es malo atesorar o deleitarnos en las cosas de la tierra o de nuestra propia humanidad; sólo está mal cuando lo que nos deleita no es de Dios, y no son del Cristo que se entrega. (c) Copyright, J. Towards August 21/22, 2010 Mission Appeal for the Catholic Diocese of Ijebu-Ode

Please welcome our visiting priest, Rev. Albert A. Adeleke of Ijebu-Ode Diocese, Nigeria on the 21 and 22 of August. Ijebu-Ode Diocese is located in the Western part of Nigeria, near Lagos. Ijebu-Ode Diocese is a rural but growing Diocese. Her population is predominantly Muslim; 50% Muslims, 25% Christians of other denominations, 15% of Catholics and 10% of Traditional African believers. The Diocese has 23 parishes with over 150 churches, 7 houses of formation, 12 religious houses for male and female religious groups. The Catholic population does not have enough material and financial resources to sustain her many developing programs of evangelization; sustenance of priest and religious, training of seminarians, and to sustain primary health care project for the villagers. Please let us warmly welcome Fr. Albert and let us be as generous as possible to his Mission Diocese.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — Jesus urges us to be rich in what matters to God. The psalmist warns us against hardening our hearts. Are our hearts open to what really matters.

Decimotavo Domingo en el Tiempo Ordinario — Jesús no incita a que seamos ricos en lo que es importante para Dios. El Salmista no advierte contra el endurecimiento de nuestros corazones. Están abiertos nuestros corazones a lo que es realmente importante?

TESTED BY FIRE

Since gold and silver, which are only corruptible metals, are purified and tested by fire, it is but reasonable that our faith, which surpasses all the riches of the world, should be tried. -St. Peter Claver

"IOW" Knowing Internet Lingo Can Help Parents Safeguard Kids
 Online chat rooms, instant messaging systems, and even cell phones equipped to send text messages are environments rich in abbreviations, acronyms, and other shorthand that help increase the speed of communication. Parents need to become aware of some of the common lingo that is used in these environments. Some of these terms may be found to be vulgar, degrading, or otherwise offensive. However, parents and educators need to have a level of understanding of the dangers that face our children. Internet lingo can be found at www.virtusonline.org/virtus.
