WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I welcome you! In this week's Gospel, our Lord Jesus Christ leaves us with two important messages: "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger — and whoever believes in me, will never thirst." As you receive the body and blood of Christ at Eucharist, I invite you to make this day an opportunity to draw even closer to Him in faith—to strive to better understand how our Lord strengthens, comforts, and sustains you in your life.

¡Les doy la bienvenida! En el Evangelio de esta semana, nuestro Señor Jesucristo nos deja con dos mensajes importantes: "Yo Soy el pan de vida; quien venga a mí nunca tendrá hambre y quien crea en mí, nunca tendrá sed". Cuando reciben el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo en la Eucaristía, pidan con fe que les dé la oportunidad de acercarse más a él. Esfuércense por comprender mejor cómo nuestro Señor les da fuerzas, los consuela, y los sostiene en su vida.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS with Fr. Charlie

Jesus, the Forgiver

Last week, we looked at Rite 1 of the Sacrament of Penance. Today, we look at the approved Rite 2. You may already be familiar with its form. Usually, it is celebrated in each parish during the holy season of Lent, and in some places during Advent.

The second form — The Rite of Reconciliation of Several Penitents with Individual Confession and Absolution — begins with readings from scripture, hymns, prayers, a homily and an examination of conscience, followed by a call to repentance. Private confession and reconciliation follow, ending in a final thanksgiving, blessing, and dismissal. Paul VI said in 1974 that he hoped this communal rite would "become the normal way of celebration."

Sin is never just personal. It is a social phenomenon which affects our relationships. Haven't you noticed how the weight of sin seems to distort the way you feel and react? It puts us at odds with others. It distances us from God. When we acknowledge our faults communally, we recognize this social nature of our sin—and it encourages us. As we see our brothers and sisters free themselves from its oppressive bonds, being freed ourselves becomes possible.

Jesus knows we have this need. Each time we pray together as He taught us, "...forgive us our sins, as we forgive others," the communal nature of our sin is affirmed. Jesus is always ready to forgive us. However, He doesn't say, "I'll forgive you and you think about forgiving others." He makes our forgiveness of others part of the deal.

Who are you willing to forgive in order to be forgiven?

Peace,

Fr. Charlie
