WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I welcome you to God's House. How fortunate we are to be here to worship together. This weekend, Mark's Gospel invites us to consider the power of our faith. We learn from a woman who had suffered many years with illness, how with complete faith, just a touch of Jesus' robe changed everything for her. How could your life and work be changed through faith in Jesus' healing energy? I ask you to put a new level of trust in Him in the days ahead. He will know it and you will feel his Blessings come to you.

Les doy la bienvenida a la Casa de Dios. Que afortunado somos de estar aquí venerando juntos. Este fin de semana, el Evangelio de Marcos nos invita a considerar el poder de nuestra fe. Aprendemos de una mujer que había sufrido muchos años con enfermedad y cómo con sólo un toque de la bata de Jesus y su fe, cambió todo para ella. ¿Cómo podrían ser cambiados su vida y trabajo por fe en Jesús curando energía? Pido que pongan un nuevo nivel de confianza en El y en los días adelante. El lo sabrá y usted sentirá que sus Bendiciones vienen a usted.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS
with Fr. Charlie

Jesus Christ, MD

When we read the gospels, we quickly note that Jesus does a lot of healing. He is either coming from, going to, or in the process of healing someone. The stories always begin with someone courageous enough to walk out from the shadows of obscurity and begin a dialogue with Jesus. He doesn't seek them out. They are brought before Him. Almost without exception, the healing is done with the community surrounding Jesus and the seeker.

In healing the daughter of Jairus, Jesus addresses those people in the house who doubt Him and kicks them out. Jesus wants — perhaps needs — a community of believers to be part of and celebrate the new freedom He is giving those he heals.

Healing takes place on many levels; physically, emotionally, spiritually. Are you part of the community of healers?

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
