WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
I am glad you are here with us! Again, Mark's Gospel teaches us how our Lord Jesus Christ knows us. We learn this from how he felt the pain of rejection when he returned home to Nazareth. Although the news of his miracles and healings had spread, some people there doubted him as an authority from God. Our Lord understands the rejection that we may feel at times in our lives, when others doubt us or fail to see how we've grown and changed. I encourage you to support others as you would like to be supported. When we stand up for others in Truth, we stand up for Jesus.

Estoy contento que está aquí con nosotros. Otra vez, Evangelio de Mark nos enseña cómo nuestro Señor Jesucristo nos conoce. Aprendemos esto de cómo sintió el dolor de rechazo cuando volvió en casa a Nazaret. Aunque las noticias de sus milagros y curaciones hubieran esparcido, algunas personas allí lo dudaron como una autoridad de Dios. Nuestro Señor comprende el rechazo que podemos sentirnos a veces en nuestras vidas, cuando otros dudan que nosotros o fallan de ver cómo hemos crecido y hemos cambiado. Le favorezco a apoyar otros como querría ser apoyado. Cuando defendemos a otros en Verdad, nosotros defendemos a a Jesús.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS with Fr. Charlie

Jesus, the Wanderer

Jesus makes his first attempt at preaching today. He gets up in the pulpit in the place in which he worshiped from when he was a young boy. Although there is some initial interest on the part of the folk from Jesus' own town, by the end of the story they reject him.

We imagine what they say amongst themselves: "Who does Jesus think he is?" "We know this carpenter and his family." "We saw him grow up. There is nothing special about him." From the gospel we know how upsetting this was for Jesus, and the defensive posture he took towards them. Ultimately, Jesus had to "get out of Dodge City" in order to carry out his mission.

Do you feel pegged or limited by the people around you who think they have figured you out? Did you have to leave your roots in order to follow your heart and speak your word?

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
