WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am glad we are here to worship together! We are reminded in today's readings that the Lord is our shepherd. This is comforting as we celebrate the 144th Birthday of our parish this weekend. We know that our Lord Jesus Christ will provide for us, refresh us, and guide us on the right path as we continue to grow and change as a community of faith. I ask each of you to find some way this week to better serve Him as He continues to care for all of us.

Me complace estar aqui para venerar juntos. Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que el Señor es nuestro pastor. Esto nos consuela al celebrar este fin de semana los 144 años de nuestra parroquia. Sabemos que nuestro Señor Jesucristo nos proveerá y nos guiará en el sendero correcto en nuestro proceso de crecer y cambiar como comunidad de fe. Les pido a todos y cada uno de ustedes encontrar alguna forma de servirle mejor, así como El continua cuidando de todos nosotros.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS with Fr. Charlie

Jesus, Friend of Sinners

Who was Mary Magdalene? For a time she was known as Mary of Magdala, but archeological studies of the Middle East have shown no evidence of a town called Magdala. Rather, Magdalene is a title. In Aramaic, “magdala” means “tower,” “elevated,” “magnificent.” She is Mary the Great. Jesus chose Mary, a reformed public sinner, to be the first person to whom He revealed Himself after the resurrection. In the Orthodox Church, she is called the First of Apostles.

The famous church of La Madeleine in Paris is dedicated to this great woman. It is the custom each Christmas Eve that the church opens its doors to the prostitutes of Paris. They come to confess throughout the night, so that at least once a year, they can receive their Lord in Holy Communion on Christmas Day.

Jesus is a friend of sinners. No one is beyond redemption.

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
