WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings to all of you! How fortunate we are to be here together to worship our Lord Jesus Christ. This weekend in the Holy Gospel according to Mark, we are invited to question ourselves once again. How generous are we in our giving? Jesus tells us what He considers to be "generous giving." He compares those sharing from their surplus of money versus the offering of the poor widow, who from her poverty, shared generously a few cents from what little she had to her name. I encourage you to ask God to help you be a "generous giver" in His eyes. Amen.

¡Nuestros saludos para todos! ¡Cuán afortunados somos de estar alabando juntos a Nuestro Señor Jesucristo! El Santo Evangelio de Marcos esta semana nos invita a preguntarnos nuevamente. ¿Qué se considera ser una oferta generosa? Jesús nos lo recuerda cuando compara a los que comparten su excedente de dinero con el ofrecimiento de una pobre viuda quien comparte generosamente en su nombre lo poco que tiene de su pobreza. Les animo a pedirle a Dios que les ayude a ser generosos dadores ante sus ojos. ASÍ SEA

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS with Fr. Charlie

Encountering Jesus

Learning from St. Martin of Tours
Soldier and Bishop of Tours
Feast Day November 11

We never know when we will encounter Jesus. St. Martin reveals this truth to us. The story goes like this:

When he was a soldier, St. Martin had a chance-encounter with a beggar one day while riding his horse. With his sword, he cut his cloak in half and gave half of it to the beggar. This gesture was a great sacrifice for a soldier, because the soldier's cape was his blanket at night. He needed the cloak to stay warm. It wasn't simply an extra coat that he had to give away; it was part of his "military survival kit" provided to protect him from the elements. Giving half of his cloak away to the beggar was an act of kindness and sacrifice.

Later that night in his tent, St. Martin was awakened by an apparition of Jesus, who thanked him for the cloak — and told him that He was the beggar. "Whatever you do for the least of your brothers and sisters, you do for me."

We never know when we will encounter Jesus, because Jesus is everyone who is in need.

Are you watching for him?

Peace,

Fr. Charlie

We've heard you don't like to miss one. Subscribe and we will send the link to your email: www.ourladyofthepillar.org/subscribe-olp-weekly-bulletin

Commemorating Our Beloved Deceased

Throughout November, we will be commemorating our deceased. We invite you to write the name of the deceased in the Book of the Dead, which is on a podium to your right, next to the Pascal Candle. There will be a basket nearby for those who may wish to make a donation in someone's memory. Please place your donation envelopes for your deceased loved ones in the collection baskets during November.

Sacrament Preparation

Baptism • Marriage

Communion in the Home • Anointing the Sick

SPECIAL NOTE: English Baptism classes have been changed to 3rd Thursday each month at 7:00 pm. For preparation information, visit our website: www.ourladyofthepillar.org/sacraments or call the Church Parish 726-4674.

Parish Organizations and Services

We have wide array of organizations, committees, faith formation groups, and service organizations that serve our parish community.
