WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the Blessings of Our Lord Jesus Christ be with you as we worship together this weekend. The Gospel reminds us how Jesus viewed the enduring bond of man and wife in the Sacrament of Marriage and how it remains intact by virtue of their vows to one another. As you pray today, I encourage you to ask God to strengthen and enrich your commitment to the vows you've made, so that you and your family will be blessed to live in the joy God has planned for you.

Que las bendición de nuestro Señor Jesucristo estén con ustedes ahora que estamos celebramos la santa Misa este fin de semana. El Evangelio nos recuerda cómo Jesús vió el vínculo perdurable del hombre y la mujer en el sacramento del Matrimonio y la forma en que se mantiene intacto gracias a sus votos el uno al otro. Al orar hoy, los invito a pedirle a Dios para que fortalezca y enriquezca su compromiso con los votos que han hecho, para que ustedes y su familia sean bendecidos y puedan vivir en la alegría que Dios les tiene preparada.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS
with Fr. Charlie

Relationships: Three lessons from Jesus

From the beginning, God never intended us to be alone or isolated. (Gen 2:18-24). We were created to be in relationship with one another — but, because of our sin, men and women spend their lives learning how to get along together in this world as God intended. Grace helps us and the Spirit encourages.

Typically, Jesus adds a spin on this and redefines the goal by setting a higher expectation. “As I have loved you, so you must love one another.” (Jn 13:34) Look closely at His relationships and we learn how Jesus loves. Below are three of Jesus' methods. When practiced, they work to strengthen our relationships:

Look for the good in others. Jesus demonstrated this quality, particularly in His relationships with women, which were revolutionary for His time. He talked with them, treated them with respect, encouraged them to use their talents — and He honored them with His trust. Remember, Jesus asked Mary Magdalene to deliver the news of His resurrection to the disciples.

Be truthful and comforting. Even in the face of His own adversity, Jesus showed His compassion for others. When Simon Peter told him, “...I will lay down my life for you.” Jesus told him frankly, “...before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times!” Then, Jesus comforted all His disciples: “Do not let your hearts be troubled...”

Develop a forgiving heart. Jesus teaches us to be generous with our forgiveness of others. When Peter asked, “...how many times should I forgive my brother when he sins against me? Up to seven times?” Jesus answered, “...not seven times, but seventy-seven times.”

So, how do we develop these qualities in our search for intimacy?

St. John of the Cross, Mystic and Doctor of the Church, offers this remedy:

“Desire to imitate Christ. Study His life.”

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
