WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Blessings of our Lord Jesus Christ be with each of you. In this weekend's gospel, St. Mark reminds that Jesus came not to be served, but to serve and give His life for the ransom for many. As we worship together, we are again called to follow Him. This means recommitting ourselves to lives of Christian service and each of us this will be different. When you pray, ask God to reveal how He wants you to use the talents and gifts He has given you. Then watch for ideas, influences, and opportunities that may carry His answer.

La bendición de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo los acompañe siempre. En el evangelio de esta semana, San Marcos nos recuerda que Jesús vino no para que le sirvan sino para servir y dar su vida para el rescate de muchos. En cuanto ofrecemos este culto juntos, estamos llamados a seguirlo. Esto significa comprometernos al servicio cristiano que para cada uno será diferente. Cuando oremos pidamos a Dios que revele como usar talentos y regalos que El nos da. Después buscar ideas, influencias y la oportunidad que tengan su respuesta.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS with Fr. Charlie

Staying Close to Jesus

Healing Lessons from St. Teresa of Avila

Mystic and Doctor of the Church | Feast Day | October 15

Charming, witty, determined, out-spoken, down-to-earth, passionate — these are the qualities often mentioned about St. Teresa's approach to her life and work. However, what stands out to me in her writings is herself — effacing honesty and humility about her own shortcomings. It is this quality that makes her wisdom healing, because she makes it easier to admit our own flaws. "May God protect me from silly devotions and sullen saints..." she said — and "if you do something wrong, don't punish yourself — change..." — and she did.

At age 18, she entered the Carmelite convent in her native town of Avila. I "tried to keep Jesus Christ present within me... My imagination is so dull that I had no talent for imagining or coming up with great spiritual thoughts." Twenty-nine years later, she set out to change life for other nuns, by founding her first reformed convent of St. Joseph. Until her death, she was on the move reforming the Carmelite Order. She transformed over thirty convents, healing the difficulties for her nuns, placating those in authority, who often fiercely opposed her. In the process, she learned to talk with God in a direct way, speaking her mind. In turn, He guided her in pointing out the way for others to move from outer turmoil to inner peace.

St. Teresa is one of the four women named Doctors of the Church. There is nothing silly or sullen about her. In the Bookmark of Saint Teresa of Avila known as one of most famous prayers ever written — one that is referenced in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 227), she tells us how to live a healthy life and stay close to Jesus:

Bookmark of Saint Teresa of Avila

Let nothing trouble you;
Let nothing frighten you.
Everything passes.
God never changes.
Patience obtains all.
Whoever has God
Wants for nothing.
God alone is enough.

Peace,

Fr. Charlie

WISDOM to KEEP

"Jesus does not need books or doctors to teach souls. He, the Doctor of doctors, teaches without the noise of words. I have never heard him speak and yet I know He is in me. At every moment, He guides me and inspires me."

— St. Thérèse of Lisieux
