WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Blessings to all of you! The Gospel according to St. Mark has a valuable lesson for us all. Jesus scolds Peter, pointing out to him, "You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men." How many times do you find yourself unintentionally focused on everything, but our Lord Jesus Christ? I invite you to draw closer to him today as we celebrate Holy Eucharist. He will welcome you with His love.

¡Bendiciones a todos ustedes! En el evangelio de hoy, según san Marcos, Jesús nos enseña una valiosa lección. Jesús reprende a san Pedro diciéndole "Tu no piensas como Dios, sino como los hombres" ¿Cuántas veces nos encontramos involuntariamente enfocados en todo, menos en nuestro Señor Jesucristo? Los invito a enfocarnos más en las palabras de Jesús que escuchamos en la proclamación de las sagradas escrituras. Así podrán estar más cerca de Jesús quien siempre está dispuesto a darles la bienvenida en su amor.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

INSIGHTS
with Fr. Charlie

Jesus, friend of Evangelists

Once we are Baptized and Confirmed, Jesus calls us to be His evangelists—to serve in His Church, using the talent He gives us—to spread His message through our own lives and through our children. Jesus set the expectations: “...go therefore, make disciples of all nations, ...teaching them to do everything I have commanded you.” He also promised to stay with us as we take on His challenging work: “I am with you always...”

The story of St. Dominic shows us how Jesus blesses our efforts. In the 13th Century, St. Dominic founded the Dominican Order of Preachers. He and his followers helped to shape the Church with far-reaching influence throughout the world. Although St. Dominic never became as well known as his contemporary, St. Francis of Assisi, his Order produced some of the great saints in Christianity's history, including three Doctors of the Church, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Albert the Great, and St. Thomas Aquinas.

St. Dominic left us a prayer that asks for all that we need to fulfill Jesus' expectations:

May God the Father who made us bless us.
May God the Son send his healing among us.
May God the Holy Spirit move within us and give us eyes to see with, ears to hear with, and hands that your work might be done.
May we walk and preach the word of God to all...

So, where do you begin?

A few weeks back, as our parish children sang out, I was reminded...

“This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine...”

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
