WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We welcome you to Our Lady of the Pillar and to the table of our Lord Jesus Christ. In today's Gospel, according to John, we learn of Jesus' first miracle at the wedding at Cana in Galilee, when he transformed the water into wine. Jesus is generous with his love for us; He gives himself to us. As we celebrate the Holy Eucharist today, let's remember how blessed we are to receive His gift of boundless love.

Les damos a Uds. la bienvenida a Nuestra Señora del Pilar y a la Mesa de Nuestro Señor Jesús. San Juan en su Evangelio nos describe el primer milagro de Jesús: La boda de Caná de Galilea donde transforma el agua en vino. El amor de Jesús es generoso porque se nos ofrece. En cuanto celebramos hoy la Sagrada Eucaristía, recordemos qué tan benditos somos de recibir Su amor infinito.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

Living with Great Faith
Lessons from Saint Sebastian
Patron Saint of Athletes | Feast Day: January 20

Saint Sebastian was an athlete and a high ranking officer of the imperial guard in Rome under Emperor Diocletian. Once discovered to be a Christian, he was twice martyred; once by arrows, which he survived; once by clubbing. Saint Sebastian is one of the best loved among the early martyrs, in part, because he was a popular subject among the Renaissance painters. The accounts of his service and martyrdom were commemorated by St. Ambrose in Milan.

St. Sebastian by Raphaël aka Raffaello Sanzio, Italian painter and architecture, High Renaissance.

What is most significant about St. Sebastian is what we learn from the legend of how he lived in faithful service to Christ and others, using the gifts he was given. "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for common benefit." (1 Corinthians 12:7) It was Saint Sebastian's determination, courage, and sacrifice that set him apart. He was devout in helping other Christians stay strong; most notably, to Marcellian and Mark, twin brothers who were persecuted, arrested, and martyred for their faith. St. Sebastian's empowering example converted the twins' parents, public officials, and others.

Lessons from St. Sebastian:

- Work to encourage each other in your faith, using the gifts you've been given. "From everyone who has been given much, much will be expected." (Luke 12:48)
- Be determined. "...I have won the glorious contest; I have run the race; I have kept the faith." (2 Timothy 4:7)
- Be compassionate. "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." (Luke 6:36)

How determined are you to fight for the common good?

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
