WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings to each of you! This week in the readings, we learn several important truths: The Lord's Word is intended to inspire and move us. St. Paul points out that you and I are walking on holy ground; together we make up the body of Christ on earth. In Luke's Gospel, we are reminded that it is up to us to demonstrate the goodness of the Lord wherever we are — through our words, deeds, and actions — in all we do. I invite you to pray for guidance on how our Lord Jesus Christ wants you to do this in your life.

¡Los saludos a cada uno de usted! Esta semana en las lecturas, nosotros aprendemos varias verdades importantes: La Palabra del Señor es pensada inspirar y movernos. S. Paul indica que usted y yo pisa suelo santo; juntos hacemos el cuerpo de Cristo en la tierra. En el Evangelio de Luke, nosotros somos recordados que está arriba a nosotros demostrar por nuestras palabras, por los actos, y por las acciones la bondad del Señor dondequiera nosotros somos; en todo nosotros hacemos. Le invito a orar para la guía para cómo nuestro Señor Jesucristo desea que haga esto en su vida.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

Different Gifts; Same Spirit

Learning from St. Brigid of Kildare | c. 450 – 525
One of Ireland's Patron Saints | Feast Day: February 1st

"...Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. (1 Corinthians 12:27)

Jesus graces each of us with unique gifts. "There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord."

(1 Corinthians 12:4-5) We never know when or how we will be called upon to use the talents we've been given to serve others as Jesus taught us by his example.

A story from St. Brigid's remarkable life shows us how even a quiet kindness, when filled with Spirit, can draw a person to Christ.

At an early age, St. Brigid became known for her generosity, wisdom, and healing — and Jesus called on her to use these gifts. She became known for traveling the countryside, visiting the sick, the poor, and the needy. She prayed for them, cared for them, spent time with them, and anointed those who were dying.

On one occasion, she visited a pagan chieftain in Kildare, who was dying. As was customary for the time, his bed was in a room with a dirt floor covered with straw, where she found him in a delirious state. St. Brigid stayed at his bedside, trying to comfort him, but it brought him no relief. She reached down and picked up some pieces of straw from the floor and began weaving them into a cross. As she worked, a calm came over him. His mind seemed to clear; he asked her what she was doing. She told him about the meaning of the cross and about Christ's love for us: His death, His resurrection — and our redemption. Through her quiet act of kindness, filled with Spirit, the chieftain was drawn to Jesus and baptized shortly before he died. St. Brigid's cross remains a symbol throughout Ireland for healing and safety; replicas are made, blessed, and displayed in many homes.

How are you using your gifts to serve others?

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
