WELCOME Bienvenidos

MISSION

Today's first reading from Isaiah was occasioned by the return of the Jewish people from exile. The prophet visualizes the Holy City as a mother welcoming her children home. The people may now look forward to prosperity and comfort. In this post-Pentecostal season, the Church attributes this sense of fulfillment to the Holy Spirit.

Luke's Gospel describes the calling and the mission of "seventy-two others," who are commissioned to bring in the "harvest." The number is symbolic, since according to Jewish tradition the number of nations in the world is seventy-two. This then is a universal mission, a catholic mission to all the world.

MISIÓN

La primera lectura de hoy, tomada de Isaías, fue motivada por el retorno del pueblo judío del exilio. El profeta visualiza la Ciudad Santa como una madre que da la bienvenida a sus hijos que regresan al hogar. El pueblo puede ahora esperar prosperidad y comodidad. En este tiempo después de Pentecostés, la Iglesia atribuye este sentimiento de satisfacción al Espíritu Santo.

El Evangelio de Lucas describe el llamado a la misión de "otros setenta y dos", que son enviados a recoger la "cosecha". El número es simbólico, pues según la tradición judía, el número de naciones en el mundo es setenta y dos. Esta, entonces, es una misión universal, una misión católica para todo el mundo.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

Reflections

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are "among the missing." Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the "sabbatical" rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshipping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situates us in community, and evokes a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life.

Do you wish to be Baptized in the Catholic Church?

"Go, therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son and of the Holy Spirit." (Matthew 28,19).

Our Lord's command rings true today as it did in First Century Palestine, invite inquirer to partake in the saving waters of Baptism. Everyone who drinks this water ... will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him/her a spring of water welling up to eternal life." (John 4:13-14).

Exploring Our Faith - Explorando Nuestra Fe

Magisterial of the Church

The mission of an archeologist in any part of the world is to help discover the real reasons of the modern man's behavior, starting from the way their ancestors operated and thought. In a similar way, Our Lord wanted to assign an expert for the preservation of the truth. Such expert would be able to receive, preserve, and discover the truth in the Revelation and pass it on to us.

St. Peter - the speaker of the truth. It was then that Our Lord founded His church over Saint Peter and the Apostles, promising these experts that the Holy Spirit will help them to discover, interpret, transmit, and maintain the truth intact, without inventions and erroneous suppositions. Peter and the Apostles received from Christ this gift and they disseminated among their successors, the Pope and Bishops who shared their faith and who also had the gift from the Holy Spirit to be sure they will not mislead their faith interpretations.

The Pope and Bishops have the authority and the grace to conserve, preach and interpret the Word of God. It is such a task, which only the Pope and Bishops are able to exercise, is called "Magisterial of the Church".

In the next Bulletin we will have a more complete definition of what Magisterium is and how we are part of it.

Magisterio de la Iglesia

Así como un arqueólogo, en cualquier parte del mundo ayuda a descubrir las verdaderas razones del actuar del hombre moderno, partiendo de la forma cómo actuaban y pensaban sus antepasados, del mismo modo Dios quiso nombrar un experto para la custodia de la verdad. Este experto debía ser capaz de recibir la Verdad, conservarla, descubrirla en la Revelación y transmitírnosla.

San Pedro - vocero de la Verdad. Fue entonces cuando Dios fundó la Iglesia sobre un hombre llamado Pedro y los Apóstoles, y prometió a estos expertos en la Verdad, el Espíritu Santo, para que les ayudara a descubrirla, interpretarla, transmitirla y mantenerla intacta, sin invenciones o suposiciones erróneas.

Pedro y los Apóstoles recibieron de Cristo esta tarea y la extendieron a sus sucesores, el papa y los obispos en comunión con él, quienes también poseen el auxilio del Espíritu Santo para garantizar que no se van a equivocar en sus interpretaciones.

El Papa y los obispos tienen la autoridad y la gracia de Dios para conservar, predicar e interpretar la Palabra de Dios. A esta tarea, exclusiva del Papa y los obispos, se le llama Magisterio de la Iglesia.

En el siguiente Boletín tendrán ustedes una definición más completa de este "magisterio" y cómo somos parte de ello.
