WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

The month of June has always been considered the month of flowers, aroma and love. It's been associated with weddings celebrations in the United States that require very careful planning. At the wedding feast at Cana, the Mother of Jesus did what she could to rescue the party by having her Son turn the water into wine. The Church today models the feast at Cana by the priest blessing the couple at marriages performed in the Church. Let's pray to our Lord that this celebration never loses its spiritual image and keeps into focus one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition: the "Nuptial Blessings" that will protect the newlyweds for the rest of their lives

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo

El mes de junio siempre ha sido considerado como el mes de las flores, del aroma y del amor. Ha estado asociado con celebración de bodas en los Estados Unidos que requieren una planificación muy cuidadosa. En la fiesta de boda en Caná, la Madre de Jesucristo hizo lo que pudo para rescatar la celebración, convertir el agua en vino y pedirle a su Hijo Jesús que bendijera la celebración para que tuviera un sentido más espiritual. Roguemos a Nuestro Señor que esta celebración nunca pierda su imagen espiritual y mantenga enfocada la más solemne oración tradicional, la "Bendición Nupcial" que protegerá a los recién-casados por el resto de sus vidas.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

Reflections

HOPE AND FORGIVENESS

There were some interesting conceptions of sin prevalent in the time of the Hebrew scriptures. There was the belief that God punished sin immediately. Those who suffered disease or misfortune were, therefore, sinners getting their due from the Almighty.

Today's first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, "The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin" (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness! Jesus is the good news of God's mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the Good News would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today's Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love.

There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

Exploring Our Faith - Explorando Nuestra Fe

JUNE 16 – FATHER'S DAY

Before Mothers' day came into focus in 1910, The United States started to celebrate occasionally a day for family fathers. It wasn't until 1972 that a special day was created for them.

In the XIX Century, St. Joseph, the Virgin Mary's spouse, received the first celebration. The church proposed St. Joseph as an example of what fathers should be in the life of their children: examples of faith, affection and work. Just as St. Joseph, the father should protect his family, teach them to work and be honest for the sake of their family and society.

For economical reasons, now the mother also is contributing to bring bread to the table. She is now playing the role of father and mother and she doesn't scrimp any efforts to sacrifice. Let's ask the Lord to give parents the energy and patience to transmit the best example to their children.

JUNIO 16 – Día del Padre

En 1910, antes de iniciarse el Día de las Madres, el pueblo de los Estados Unidos empezó a celebrar ocasionalmente un Día para los padres de familia. Pero no fue sino hasta 1972 que se fijó un día especial para el papá. En el siglo XIX, José, esposo de María Virgen, recibió su primera fiesta oficial. La Iglesia, propuso a este santo varón como ejemplo de lo que los padres deben ser en la vida de sus hijos e hijas: ejemplos de fe, ternura y trabajo. Como San José, el papá debe cuidar y proteger a su familia, enseñarles a los niños a trabajar y ser honestos para el bien de la familia y la sociedad.

Ahora es también la madre, la que ayuda a traer el pan a la mesa por razones económicas, Ella hace el papel de padre y madre a la vez y no evita ningún esfuerzo para este sacrificio. Pidamos al Ser Supremo que tanto al padre como a la madre les dé energía y paciencia para transmitir el mejor ejemplo a sus hijos.
