WELCOME Bienvenidos

Today's Gospel starts with a conversation with which Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem—and the cross. As his followers, we strive to march with him, even to the cross.

Paul's Letter to the Galatians tells us that we who have been baptized have "clothed" ourselves with Christ. Being one with Christ, we must no longer discriminate according to nationality or race, according to social status, according to gender.

The prophet Zechariah, centuries before anyone heard of Jesus, spoke of how the people find God's message uncomfortable, and so turn against the messengers. Later, though the people awaken to the realization of what they have done and are moved to repentance. Thus, they are always welcomed back by God, who always gives us grace to do the right thing, however difficult it may be.

El evangelio de hoy comienza con una conversación con la que Jesús comienza su viaje a Jerusalén - y la cruz. Como sus seguidores, nos esforzamos por caminar con él, incluso hasta la cruz.

La carta de Pablo a los Gálatas nos dice que los que hemos sido bautizados nos hemos "revestido" de Cristo. Al ser uno con Cristo, ya no debemos discriminar según la nacionalidad o la raza, o basados en el estatus social, o basados en la raza que pertenezca cada persona. El profeta Zacarías, siglos antes de que alguien oyera hablar de Jesús, habló de cómo las personas encuentran que el mensaje de Dios puede incomodar, por lo que los que los escuchan se vuelven contra los mensajeros. Más tarde, sin embargo, las personas comprenden lo que han hecho y son movidas al arrepentimiento. Por lo tanto, Dios siempre les da de nuevo la bienvenida y los ayuda con su gracia para que hagan lo correcto, por difícil que sea.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

PARISH Life

Reflections

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Processions are life's journey distilled. We move with companions, aware that Christ accompanies us, as we move to the altar for Communion or to the font for baptism, or carry a loved one to a place of rest. In Europe, the season of pilgrimage is beginning now, and tens of thousands of people are moving by foot on well-worn paths. Some take as long as six weeks to walk the last few hundred miles of the medieval pilgrimage route to the Shrine of St. James the Apostle in Compostella, in northern Spain.

Those who make the journey by foot, hiking, or by bicycle, have a kind of passport stamped at villages and monasteries on the road. When they present this document at the cathedral, they are given the emblem of a pilgrim, the scallop shell of St. James. High over their heads at Mass, a huge botafumero twirls clouds of sweet incense through the cathedral. Cynics say it is to mask the odor of smelly feet. The pilgrims know better. Seeing through the clouds the happy faces of those they met along the road, they recognize a foretaste of the welcome into heaven, and the joy of meeting loved ones in the Kingdom of God.

The Flying Saint

Jesuit José Anchieta. This "Apostle of Brazil" was beatified in 1980 thanks to his great humanitarian efforts as well as his literary and gospel preaching. He arrived in Brazil in 1553 where he learned Tupi, the language of the natives. He taught and evangelized the indigenous Indians, educating them in history, medicine and philosophy.

Eventually he founded a College of Jesuits in Sao Paulo, Piratinga, where he courageously to educated, both together the children of the Natives and the children of the Portuguese. To support to these efforts, he wrote many books and manuals, and he became the first educational writer in Brazil. Besides being a prolific writer, Fr. Anchieta devoted his life to preach the Gospel in this country he crossed on foot, founding towns and schools for the Christian Natives. He was called "The Flying Saint" because of the great speed he would always walk. His great devotion for the Gospel motivated him to continue on walking. He portrayed what Prophet Isaiah said: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the Good News!"

"El Santo Volador"

El 9 de junio de 1597, falleció el Jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo "apóstol de Brasil" fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y humaniza dores. Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupi, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina.

Eventualmente fundó el Colegio Jesuita de Sao Paulo de Piratinga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el evangelio en el país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el "Santo Volador" por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dijo el profeta Isaías: "¡Qué hermosos son los pies de aquel que trae las Buenas Nuevas!"
