THE PRICE OF FREEDOM

Today's readings promise that if we could escape from the shackles of our attachments we would be happier, freer, and more peaceful. Luke's Gospel begins, "When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, He resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem." Aware of the opposition and danger awaiting him, Jesus went forward. Naturally, brave people volunteered to join him. But Jesus cautioned them. Could they give up their attachments to home and possessions, friends and family, conventional responsibilities? A tough challenge, but not unprecedented.

EL PRECIO DE LA LIBERTAD

Las lecturas de hoy nos aseguran que si somos capaces de escapar de nuestras ataduras seremos más felices, más libres y tendremos más paz. El Evangelio de Lucas comienza diciendo "Cuando ya se acercaba el tiempo en que tenía que salir de este mundo, Jesús tomó la firme determinación de emprender el viaje a Jerusalén". Consciente de la resistencia y el peligro que le esperaban, Jesús siguió adelante. Naturalmente, unos valientes se brindaron a acompañarlo. Pero Jesús les advirtió. ¿Serían capaces de romper sus ataduras con sus casas, posesiones, amigos y familias, de abandonar sus responsabilidades normales? Un duro reto, pero no sin precedentes.

Reflections

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The pilgrim experience of going by foot to Santiago de Compostella, the shrine of St. James, reaches its high point a month from now at the feast of the Apostle. By now, tens of thousands of pilgrims are already on the road. Typically, they cover twelve to twenty miles a day through rough territory. The difficult journey and the often primitive lodging facilities are made bearable by the joy of the pilgrims, their songs and prayers. When their journey is documented properly, they receive the scallop shell, a reminder not only of James the fisherman, but also his call to fish for human beings and to baptize the nations. In the Middle Ages, those who wore this badge on their hats were granted lodging and hospitality wherever they went. Next to the palm, the sign of a Jerusalem pilgrim, the scallop shell was most highly prized. In the Middle Ages, some people so enjoyed the pilgrim road, although it was filled with discomfort and danger, that they spent most of their lives on the road. Today, some people take up the route for exercise, but are drawn gradually into the spirituality of the journey. As you make your summer travels, always fold in an element of pil-

Exploring Our Faith - Explorando Nuestra Fe

St. Peter and St. Paul are the two pillars of the Church in the dissemination of our Christian Faith. In the Gospel of John, 21: 15-25, Our Lord Jesus Christ asked Peter three times: "Do you love me?" Peter answered: "You know that I love you." After Jesus asked the third time, Peter became worried, but his answer was the same. "My Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you. Jesus said to Peter; "Take care of my sheep". It was at this moment that Jesus chose him to be the Shepherd of his Church. St. Peter becomes the first Pope of the Church, when Jesus said "you are the rock and upon this rock, I shall build my Church". Many times we may feel that Jesus is asking us if we love Him. We answer "yes", but do we tell Him why and what we can do to imitate Him?

The second touching story is in Acts 9, 3-9. Saul, St. Paul's pagan name, with permission from the Jewish high priest, was empowered to arrest and bring to Jerusalem newly converted Christians for punishment. As Saul traveled to Damascus, a thunderbolt from the sky threw him to the ground and a mysterious voice said to him: "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" "Who are you Sir, and what do you expect from me?" Paul replied. The voice answer, "I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting". "Get up and go into the city, where you will be told what to do". Jesus was preparing Paul for conversion because His plans were to make Paul an instrument to bring Christianity to the Gentiles throughout the region.

San Pedro y San Pablo - Dos Apóstoles Gigantes en la propagación de la Fe Cristiana. El evangelio de S. Juan, 21, 15-25 narra el diálogo cuando Jesús pregunta a San Pedro 3 veces: Simón Pedro, ¿me amas? Señor, "Tú sabes que te amo", responde Pedro. Después que Jesús le pregunta la tercera vez, San Pedro se preocupa y su respuesta sigue siendo la misma, Señor, Tú lo sabes todo, Tú sabes que te amo. Y fue aquí que Jesús le otorga el rango de Pastor de su Iglesia Universal diciéndole: "Apacienta mis Ovejas". Desde ese momento Pedro se convierte en el primer Santo Padre de la cristiandad, cuando Jesús le dice "Tú eres roca y sobre esta roca edificaré mi Iglesia. Cuando sentimos que Jesús nos pregunta, ¿Me amas? Le contestamos que sí, ¿pero le decimos por qué, y qué hacemos para imitarlo?

El segundo mensaje en Actos, 9, 3-9, narra el momento en que San Pablo montado en su caballo rumbo a la ciudad de Damasco, azotó a su caravana un resplandor brillante y se escuchó una voz que decía, "Saulo, Saulo, ¿por qué me persigues? Y Saulo le responde. Señor, ¿Quién eres y qué quieres de mí? La voz contestó, "Soy Jesús a quien tú persigues. Levántate, ve a la ciudad donde alguien te dirá qué debes hacer". Jesús le preparó el camino para ser curado e instruido porque sus planes eran hacerlo instrumento para llevar su nombre a gentiles, reyes y habitantes de Israel. Desde ahí, la Fe se propagó por todas las regiones. ¿Qué sentimos cuando hacemos cosas que le agradan a Nuestro Señor Jesús, o cuando sentimos que Él nos dice, "Ven y sígueme"?"
