WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We welcome you to Our Lady of the Pillar as we gather for the 5th Sunday of Lent. In this week's Gospel, our Lord Jesus Christ reminds us an important truth: We are all sinners. He tells us, "Let the one among you who is without sin, be the first to throw a stone" at someone else. Before we judge others, Jesus asks us to examine our own lives and confess our sins. When we do, you will find that He is always there to forgive us. Amen.

Bienvenidos todos a Nuestra Señora del Pilar, reunidos para el 5º Domingo de Cuaresma. En el Evangelio de hoy Nuestro Señor Jesucristo nos recuerda que somos pecadores. Él nos dice: Aquel que se crea sin pecado que arroje la primera piedra a otro. Antes de juzgar a otros, Jesús nos pide que examinemos nuestras propias vidas y confesemos nuestros pecados. Cuando lo hagamos, sabremos que Él siempre estará allí para perdonarnos. Amén.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

Good Friday Meeting at the Cross

The Easter Triduum is one liturgy that spans three days. Symbolically, we gather on Holy Thursday and stay together as we commemorate the passion and resurrection of our Lord, which concludes on Easter Sunday. For this reason, on Good Friday at the Celebration of the Lord's Passion, we will actually be continuing the sacred experience we started the day before.

Together, the quiet, the solemnity, and ancient prayers of the Good Friday rituals, all work to illuminate the mystery of the Lord's Passion through the readings. We pray, listen, and reflect on them, as He prays for us: "May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me and have loved them, ...as you loved me." (John 17:23)

We also meet at the cross to venerate it. This tradition dates back to the early centuries in Jerusalem, where churches acquired relics for the Good Friday rites from the True Cross — the cross where Jesus was nailed and died for us. The ritual of veneration of the cross endured, long after obtaining a relic was no longer possible.

On Good Friday, we will celebrate this tradition together. You will have an opportunity to find your own way to express what is in your heart, leaving whatever is important to you, be it a kiss, your own expression of gratitude, respect, and love, or for some of you, the burdens you've carried far too long. "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28).

Our invitation comes in the words of the Gregorian Chant:

"Ecce lignum crucis in quo salus mundi pependit. Venite, adoremus."

Behold the wood of the cross on which hung the savior of the world. Come, let us adore."

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
