WELCOME Bienvenidos

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the Blessings of our Lord Jesus Christ be with each of you as we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity Sunday. In this weekend's Gospel according to St. John, Jesus reminds us that the Trinity is "one God and three Persons;" and that we are "made in the image" of the divine Three. As you pray today and meet at God's table, ask Him to help us live in community in our lives and our work as He wants us to do.

Que las bendiciones de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo esté con todos mientras celebramos el más Sagrado Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad. El Evangelio de San Juan nos recuerda que la Trinidad es un Dios y Tres Personas y que todos fuimos hechos a imagen de las divinas Tres. Cuando oremos hoy y nos reunamos a la mesa del Señor, pidámosle que nos ayude a vivir en comunidad como Él lo quiere.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

Parish Announcements

Join us this Sunday, May 26 after 10am Mass for Fr. Charlie's 25th Jubilee Anniversary Reception

Our parish family will be celebrating Fr. Charlie's 25th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. You're invited to join us for food, fellowship, and a tribute to Fr. Charlie's service. See FLYER in this bulletin and also online for details: www.ourladyofthepillar.org

Fr. Charlie's Farewell Party is Friday, May 31st in the New Hall at 7:00 –10:00 pm. You won't want to miss it! Come share in a parish toast and celebration of his service to Our Lady of the Pillar and his 25th Anniversary. It is his last day with us. Learn more and RSVP online at: www.frcharliesparty.eventbrite.com

Pope Francis asks us to pray with him. In the aftermath of the devastating tornado in Oklahoma, Pope Francis sent out a tweet to us: "I am close to the families of all who died in the Oklahoma tornado, especially those who lost young children. Join me in praying for them."

The Most Holy Trinity
Its Mystery and Its Wonder

"May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all."
— 2 Corinthians 11:13

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the heart of our Christian faith. When we profess our faith by saying the Nicene Creed together, we describe our belief in one God, in one Lord Jesus Christ, in the Holy Spirit, and we recount how they work together as one.

The analogy of a musical chord illustrates how the unity is created: The C-chord has three notes: C, E, and G. Each note has its own significance; each is distinctive. When the three notes are played together, they form one chord. The sound is richer and more powerful than when the notes are played individually. All the notes in a musical chord are equally important; if one is left out, the richness of the sound cannot be heard.

As Jesus told us, everyone who follows Him, does so because the Father draws him and the Spirit moves him. (John 6:44) All three are essential and work in unity.

St. Thérèse of Lisieux*, Carmelite nun and Doctor of the Church, described her devotion to the Holy Trinity in her poem, To Live of Love. It was on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity in 1895 that she completed her vows and soon began her autobiographical writings. This excerpt describes her experience of the wonder of the Holy Trinity:

Incarnate Word! Thou Word of God alone!
To live of love, 'tis to abide with Thee.
Thou knowest I love Thee, Jesus Christ, my Own!
Thy Spirit's fire of love enkindleth me.
By loving Thee, I draw the Father here
Down to my heart, to stay with me always.
Blest Trinity!...

Peace,
Fr. Charlie
