WELCOME Bienvenidos

ALL-POWERFUL YET CARING GOD

It used to be that when I thought, "Old Testament," I thought of narratives written many centuries before Christ. Then I learned that today's passage from the book of Wisdom was written less than one hundred years before Jesus was born. These words were so contemporaneous with Jesus that he himself conceivably could have written or spoken them. He certainly lived them. The Wisdom reading is a poetic prayer celebrating a Creator-God before whom the universe is like a grain of sand, yet who is still lovingly concerned with every individual. This is the God whom Jesus reveals, with unlimited power over all creation, yet watching out for sinners climbing trees. Zacchaeus was no ordinary tax collector, but the chief tax collector, and "a wealthy man." But he wasn't too proud to run ahead and clamber up into a sycamore tree just to get a glimpse of Jesus. Maybe, sinner though he was, he recognized in this wandering preacher the object of the Wisdom poet's adoration.

DIOS TODOPODEROSO PERO COMPASIVO

Cuando yo pensaba en el "Antiguo Testamento", me imaginaba narraciones escritas muchos siglos antes de Cristo. Luego aprendí que el pasaje de hoy del libro de la Sabiduría fue escrito menos de cien años antes de la venida de Jesús. Esas palabras eran tan contemporáneas para Jesús que él podría haberlas escrito o dicho. Él ciertamente las vivió. La lectura del libro de la Sabiduría es una oración poética que celebra a Dios Creador ante quien el universo es como un grano de arena, pero amorosamente atento a cada individuo. Este es el Dios a quien Jesús revela, con poder ilimitado sobre toda la creación, pero buscando pecadores montados en árboles. Zaqueo no era un recaudador de impuestos ordinario sino el jefe de los recaudadores, y "un hombre rico". Pero no era demasiado orgulloso para adelantarse corriendo y subirse a un sicómoro sólo para poder ver a Jesús. Quizá, a pesar de ser un pecador, reconoció a este itinerante predicador como el objeto de la adoración del poeta del libro de la Sabiduría.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

All proceeds from the WINE TASTING go to support the TABLE of PLENTY, a weekly supper for the hungry. Every week, our dedicated team of TOP volunteers work together to shop, cook, greet, serve, make music in a warm, welcoming dining room they create for struggling families, the elderly, and the homeless. Jesus set the example for our TOP ministry: He asked us to love one another as He loved us. We also learned from “the miracle of the loaves and fishes that people were involved in the production of the loaves and in catching of the fish placed in the baskets at the feet of Jesus.” * Our fall fundraiser will enable us to continue to do the important work of feeding the hungry in our community as a parish family. We thank you. * “Feed My Sheep,” America Magazine
