WELCOME Bienvenidos

NOT WATCHING FOR THE SECOND COMING

As we near the end of the Church year, the scriptures become more urgent. Both the prophet Malachi and Jesus, in the Gospel according to Luke, offer graphic pictures of a terrible future. But we are missing the message if we use these passages to speculate about when the world will end. The troubles predicted have already occurred, and then some. In the last century alone, we have seen devastation beyond anything the ancient prophets could have imagined. We weren't given these passages to strike fear in our hearts, but faith. The sun of justice will rise, Malachi assures us, for those who are faithful. And Jesus promises, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives." But it is Paul who brings the message down to earth. The Thessalonians were so sure that the end of the world was upon them, some of them had stopped working! Paul states his case clearly: "If anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat." We are not called to worry about how things will end, but to live today faithfully.

NO ESTAR ATENTOS A LA SEGUNDA VENIDA

Al acercarse el final del año litúrgico, la Sagrada Escritura se hace más urgente. Tanto el profeta Malaquías como Jesús en el Evangelio de Lucas ofrecen descripciones gráficas de un terrible futuro. Pero estamos perdiendo el mensaje si usamos estos pasajes para especular sobre cuándo se acabará el mundo. Los problemas predichos, y muchos más, han ocurrido ya. Nada más en el siglo pasado, hemos visto devastaciones peores que las que los antiguos profetas hubieran podido imaginar. No se nos dieron estos pasajes para llenarnos el corazón de temor sino de fe. El sol de justicia brillará, nos asegura Malaquías, para quienes son fieles. Y Jesús promete: "Manténganse firmes y se salvarán". Pero es Pablo quien presenta el mensaje más escuetamente. Los tesalonicenses estaban tan convencidos de que el fin del mundo estaba cerca, ¡que algunos de ellos dejaron de trabajar! Pablo les explica su condición claramente: "... si alguien no quiere trabajar, que no coma". No somos llamados a preocuparnos sobre cómo terminarán las cosas, sino a vivir fielmente hoy.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

As a Catholic, do I really know my faith?

Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, formed 12 apostles to become the New Israel in the 1st century and today we are the rich recipients of that Formation, handed down through time from the Apostles and their successors, the Bishops, who form the Teaching Office of the Catholic Church (Magisterium). That tradition's fruit is the preaching and teaching of the Good News, that salvation has been indeed offered to all humankind. This Advent Season, the Coming of our Savior, you are cordially invited to attend a seminar-style exploration of our Faith, reading together:

The Catechism of the Catholic Church with Reverend Father Joseph Previtali, S.T.L., our Parochial Vicar.

First meeting: Monday, December 2, 2013, at 7:30 PM, at the Rectory. If you wish to participate, please sign up by calling the Parish Office at 650.726.4674. Let us know if you need a copy of The Catechism.
