WELCOME Bienvenidos

THE WORD OF GOD UNCHAINED

There is no chaining the word of God! But how many times do we attempt to do that very thing? Had the followers of Jesus or the teachers of the law or the Pharisees been asked if the lepers should be cleansed or healed, the answer would most likely have been, "No, they deserve their condition." The lepers would have been, perhaps, a mixed group, Galileans and Samaritans alike, the bond of their awful disease overcoming the pettiness of former religious bickering. Jesus' actions once again illustrate his vocation and ours - to reach out when healing is needed, to challenge when conversion is needed, to console when comfort is needed. He also follows his own advice from last week's Gospel - do what you have been commanded to do. When the cleansed Samaritan has returned to give thanks, Jesus does not take it as an opportunity for self-aggrandizement, but rather offers insight into faith.

DESENCADENA LA PALABRA DE DIOS

¡La Palabra de Dios no se puede encadenar! Pero, ¿cuántas veces tratamos de hacer eso precisamente? Si les hubiesen preguntado a los maestros de la Ley o a los fariseos si los leprosos debían ser curados, la respuesta muy probablemente habría sido: "No, ellos se merecen su condición". Los leprosos habrían sido, quizá, un grupo mixto: Tanto galileos como samaritanos, las ataduras de su terrible enfermedad habría superado la pequeñez de antiguas rivalidades religiosas. La acción de Jesús de nuevo ilustra su vocación y la nuestra: ayudar cuando alguien necesita ser curado, retar cuando una conversión es necesaria, consolar cuando se necesita consuelo. Él también sigue su propio consejo del Evangelio de la semana pasada: hacer lo que se te ordena. Cuando el samaritano curado regresa a dar gracias, Jesús no aprovecha la oportunidad para vanagloriarse sino más bien ofrece una reflexión sobre la fe.

May God Bless you all,

Exploring Our Faith

Reflecting on God's Word

When Jan's son and his buddies were given two weeks' notice to move out of their house, Jan proposed that they throw a cleaning/moving party. She provided the food, drinks, and cleaning supplies. They provided the music and the muscle. The party was a great success. The house got cleaned, the move was completed in one afternoon, and everyone went home happy. Later that week a thank-you card arrived from one of her son's housemates. "Thanks for the party, Jan. We couldn't have done it without you. You're the greatest. Adam." Do we take the time to reflect back on each day or do we just keep moving on? Do we recognize the healing in our lives or focus only on the suffering? Do we realize that "we couldn't have done it without" God or do we attribute our successes to good luck or our own hard work? Do we, like Naaman and the Samaritan leper, make it a habit to express our thanks to God in public praise and in lives of service?

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Cuando al hijo de Juanita y a sus amigos les dijeron que tenían que mudarse de su casa en dos semanas Juanita les propuso que hicieran una fiesta para limpiar y mudarse. Ella proveyó la comida, bebida y lo necesario para la limpieza. Ellos se ocuparon de la música y el trabajo. La fiesta fue un gran éxito. La casa quedó limpia, la mudanza tomó la mitad de un día y todos se fueron a casa contentos. Antes del final de esa misma semana llegó una tarjeta de agradecimiento enviada por uno de los compañeros de piso de su hijo: "Gracias por la fiesta, Juanita. No hubiéramos podido hacer nada sin ti. Eres la mejor".
¿Dedicamos nosotros algún tiempo para hacer una mirada reflexiva al día que pasó o seguimos adelante como si nada?
¿Reconocemos lo que ha sido sanado en nuestra vida o sólo nos enfocamos en el sufrimiento? ¿Nos damos cuenta de que "no hubiéramos podido hacer nada sin" Dios o atribuimos nuestro éxito a la buena suerte o a nuestros propios esfuerzos? ¿Tenemos el hábito de expresar nuestro agradecimiento a Dios, como lo hizo Naamán y el leproso de Samaria, en una alabanza pública y por medio de nuestro servicio?
