WELCOME Bienvenidos

SEEK VIRTUE

In today's first reading, Amos condemns self-absorbed people and their morally corrupt behavior and attitudes, which he warns will bring devastation. In the Gospel, the wealthy man is not given a name; he is simply the epitome of greed and irresponsibility. His lack of caring has created a gulf between him and the beggar Lazarus that not even Abraham can bridge.

In his letter to Timothy, a young bishop in the small Evangelical community of Ephesus, Paul encourages this leader to seek virtues such as integrity, faith, and steadfastness with extreme gentleness. Paul also asks Timothy to keep in mind the future life with God who "dwells in unapproachable light." This is the blessedness of all those who, like Lazarus, were once poor but who are now rich.

PRACTICAR LA VIRTUD

En la primera lectura de hoy, Amós condena la corrupta moralidad en el comportamiento y la actitud de un pueblo que no se preocupa sino por su bienestar y les anticipa que les traerá devastación. En el Evangelio, el hombre rico ni siquiera tiene un nombre, es simplemente la personificación de la avaricia y la irresponsabilidad. Su falta de caridad ha creado un abismo entre él y el mendigo Lázaro que ni Abraham puede cerrar.

En su carta a Timoteo, un joven obispo en la pequeña comunidad formada después de la Resurrección en Éfeso, Pablo exhorta a este dirigente a practicar virtudes como integridad, fe y constancia con gran bondad. Pablo también pide a Timoteo que conserve en su mente la vida futura con Dios que "vive en la luz inaccesible". Esta es la bienaventuranza de todos aquellos que, como Lázaro, fueron una vez pobres pero ahora son ricos.

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Juan Manuel

Our Lord’s command rings true today as it did in first century Palestine, namely all people to partake in the saving waters of Baptism. Everyone who drinks this water ... will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him/her a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” (John 4:13-14).

The Rite of Christian Initiation as an Adult - meets Thursday at 4:00 p.m. in the Rectory Conference Room. Please email: terryrupple@earthlink.net to enroll.

Exploring Our Faith

Reflecting on God’s Word

If anyone is the prophet of the punch line, it is Amos. He travels up from the south to preach to the people of the northern kingdom of Israel and he pulls no punches. “Woe to the complacent,” he begins, and then in a quick series of brush strokes lets them know how God sees them: lying upon their beds, stretched out on their couches, eating their tender lamb and calves, drinking fine wine while the music plays and they anoint themselves with the best oils. Then the punch line—they shall be the first to go into exile. The party is over!

In a similar vein Jesus paints a portrait of “Richman”—tradition has named him Dives (Latin for “rich man”)—dressed in the best, eating the best, insulated in his own little world, while at his door Lazarus lies starving, with only dogs coming to lick his sores. It is a scene of total indifference to the plight of the poor. God’s response is clear. The wheel will turn. And when it does, so shall Lazarus and Richman. What was a gap between them becomes a chasm.

The Letter to Timothy today contains advice from a mentor to his beloved child in the faith. It offers of profile of how the baptized person is to live. It’s a regretful that today’s reading does not consist of the complete letter to Timothy because the missing section directly warn about the dangers of money, offering advice for the wealthy so that they may “lay hold of eternal life” (6:12).
