As a Catholic community, we strive to grow in faith together through the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ.
FOUNDED 1868

Peter and Paul Today is something of a rarity: the celebration of a saint’s day which replaces the Sunday liturgy. Only a handful of these days, given the official rank of “solemnity,” are considered so foundational and primal to the mission of the Church that they can interrupt the Sunday sequence. And so it is with Peter and Paul today. In a way, they each have personality traits with which we can identify. They are both impetuous, sometimes acting or speaking thoughtlessly, contradicting the spiritual gifts given to them by God. At such times, they might receive a nudge from God, much the same as many of us experience.
On the positive side, these men were deeply rooted in their faith in Christ, tireless and fearless in living out their call to spread the Good News of his death and resurrection. Perhaps we might identify more with one or the other, but the essential truth we celebrate today is this: Through the Spirit, Christ built and continues to build the Church and make the kingdom known through fragile, remarkable human beings, each graced in a particular way for the work of the reign of God.

Pedro y Pablo
Hoy es una rara vez: la celebración del día de un santo que rempla-za la liturgia del domingo. Sólo un puñado de días como éste, con rango oficial de “solemnidad”, son considerados tan fundamentales y primarios en la misión de la Iglesia que pueden interrumpir la secuencia de los domingos. Tal es el caso de san Pedro y san Pablo hoy día. De cierta manera, cada uno tiene rasgos de personalidad con los que nos podemos identificar: ambos son impetu-osos, a veces actuando y hablando sin pensar, contradiciendo los dones espirituales que Dios les había dado. En esos casos, tal vez reciben un empujoncito de Dios, como los que muchos de nosotros hemos sentido. En lo positivo, la fe de estos hombres estuvo profundamente fundamentada en Cristo, incansables y valientes cuan o vivían su llamado de anunciar la Buena Noticia de su muerte y resurrección. Quizás nos identificamos más con uno que otro, pero la verdad esencial que celebramos hoy es esta: por el Espíritu, Cristo edificó y continúa edificando la Iglesia y da a conocer el Reino por medio de frágiles y notables seres humanos, cada uno con una gracia particular para la obra del Reino de Dios.

Special 2nd Collection
Sunday, June 29

Your contribution can make a difference in someone’s life! Since January, 2014, St. Vincent de Paul has provided monetary assistance totaling $16,489 to families and individuals in our community.

This money has kept families in their homes by paying rent; it has kept the lights on by paying for utility bills; it has kept people employed by paying for gas as well the repairs of their vehicles used to get to their jobs... and it also gave individuals and families the gift of being loved and knowing someone cared about their needs. Every contribution you make is appreciated. Learn more about St. Vincent de Paul and how you can get involved on the OLP Parish Website:
