SEEING THROUGH

Today’s readings invite us to look more deeply, to catch a glimpse of Divine Reality hidden within the “stuff” of life.
God challenged the elderly Abram and his wife to leave home for a land that God would show them. Their eyes would see the land, but only God could “show” it as a divine gift. Paul reminded Timothy that God’s grace had always been available, but in Jesus Christ, it was made “manifest.” Jesus called Peter, James, and John up the mountain and was “transfigured” for a moment, the radiance of God shining through. Then, just as abruptly, the three looked up . . . and saw only Jesus. During Lent we’re invited to “see through” to God’s presence in the stuff of life: prowling the supermarket, waiting in traffic, carpooling with the kids, cleaning the bathtub. We wouldn’t really have to “do” anything, if we could only glimpse divine love supporting us, holding us together.

VER LA PRESENCIA DE DIOS

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a mirar más profundamente para poder dar un vistazito a la realidad divina encerrada en “las cosas” ordinarias de la vida. Dios retó al anciano Abram y a su esposa a que dejaran su casa para ir “a la tierra que te mostraré”. Sus ojos verían la tierra, pero sólo Dios “podía” mostrarla como un don divino. Pablo recordó a Timoteo que la gracia de Dios siempre ha estado a nuestra disposición, pero que en Jesús se “manifestó”. Jesús invitó a Pedro, Santiago y Juan para que subieran al cerro y allí se “transfiguró” por un momento, y el resplandor de Dios brilló a través de él. Luego, con la misma rapidez, los tres miraron . . . y sólo vieron a Jesús.
Durante la Cuaresma se nos invita a “mirar más allá” para ver la presencia de Dios en las cosas ordinarias: haciendo las compras en el supermercado, esperando en el tráfico, atendiendo a los hijos, limpiando la bañera. No tendríamos que “hacer” nada más si pudiéramos divisar el amor divino que nos apoya y nos sostiene.

Art & Environment Easter Flower Offerings

Do You have a Special Person in Your Life that you would like to remember at Easter?
Recuerde Los Seres Queridos o Amigos Especiales en Su Vida

For a $10 donation, you can name a loved one or special person in your life to honor in our Easter Remembrance Book. Their names will be recorded in the book and remembered in prayer throughout the Easter Season. Proceeds will be used to buy flowers for the Sanctuary and to bring beauty to our liturgy throughout the year. See FLYER and ENVELOPE in this week’s bulletin for details (in English and Spanish)

Did you know?

We have a wide array of committees, faith formation groups, and service organizations that serve our parish community. More information is available in the vestibule of the church. For a complete list of groups and meeting times, visit our parish website: www.ourladyofthepillar.org/groups.
