Dear Parishioners,

“Advent has a two-fold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ’s Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight.”

“But one of the reasons we read the Old Testament during Advent is to learn what to hope for. The people of the Old Testament had the courage to hope for big things: that the desert would be turned fertile land; that their scattered and divided people would eventually be gathered again; that the blind would see, the deaf hear, the lame walk; that not only their own people, but all the peoples of the earth, would be united in the blessing of everlasting peace.”

Estimados Feligreses,

“Adviento tiene un doble carácter, porque es un tiempo de preparación para las solemnidades de Navidad, en la que la primera venida del Hijo de Dios a la humanidad es recordado, y del mismo modo un momento en que, por el recuerdo de esta, las mentes y los corazones son guiados a mirar hacia adelante a la Segunda Venida de Cristo al final de los tiempos. Por estas dos razones, el Adviento es un periodo de alegría devoto y expectante ”.

"Pero una de las razones por las que leemos el Antiguo Testamento durante el Adviento es aprender a tener esperanza. La gente del Antiguo Testamento tuvo el coraje de esperar por grandes cosas: que el desierto se volviera tierra fértil; que sus pueblos dispersos y divididos eventualmente se reunirían de nuevo; que los ciegos pudieran ver, los sordos pudiesen oir, los cojos pudieran caminar; que no sólo su propio pueblo, sino todos los pueblos de la tierra, se unirían en la bendición de la paz eterna ".

May God Bless you all,
Fr. Shouraiah Pudota
