Reflecting on God’s Word
It might be surprising to listen to the three readings that all have to do not just with shedding blood, but sprinkling it on people, as Moses did out in the desert, and presenting Jesus as the great high priest who goes into the sanctuary bearing His own blood, which will “cleanse our consciences from dead works” (Hebrews 9:14) so we can worship the living God. And then there is the more familiar reading of Mark’s account of the Last Supper, when Jesus tells His disciples to drink His blood. Perhaps we have gotten used to hearing these words since they are spoken at every Mass. But if you stop and think about it they are rather shocking.

In the biblical world blood is sacred, blood is life. From the beginning animals were offered in sacrifice. But with the offering of the body and blood of Christ, a new relationship has been entered into with our God. Through Jesus’ gift of His body and blood, salvation was won for us and is present to us when we gather in His name to praise the Father.
