The Beauty of life,
There is no doubt that Half Moon Bay is a beautiful place in which to live. The people are great. Every time I drive to Pescadero I really enjoy the beauty of the landscape on one side on the road and the ocean on the other. I am struck by the need for beauty deep within our hearts as we search for fulfillment. Only beauty can make these things and perfect our humanity. These days of the Season of Lent we reflect deeply on the Humanity of Jesus. St. Augustine spoke of a passion for the beauty of God, but our hearts also search passionately for beauty within our hearts and the world. We all look for beautiful persons, places and things. We like to enjoy them. However, the beauty of our God is so amazing; He promised us His mercy and kindness. St. Paul writes so simply to give us a glimpse of it when he says, “Eye has not seen, nor has ear heard, nor has it entered into the mind of a man to imagine what God has stored up for those who love Him.” (1COR:2:9). Then we can join St. Augustine and say, “Late have I loved you, O Beauty ever ancient and ever new, late have I loved YOU.”
La belleza de la vida,
No hay duda de que Half Moon Bay es un hermoso lugar para vivir. La gente es buena. Cada vez que voy a Pescadero yo realmente disfruto de la belleza a un lado de la carretera hay paisajes y otro lado el océano. Me llama la atención la necesidad de la belleza de nuestros corazones y en la búsqueda de plenitud. Sólo la belleza puede hacer estas cosas perfectas para nuestra humanidad. En estos días de la temporada de Cuaresma nos reflejan profundamente en la humanidad de Jesús. San Agustín habla de la pasión por la belleza de Dios, pero nuestros corazones también buscan con pasión la belleza dentro de nuestros corazones y el mundo. Todos buscamos bellas personas, lugares y cosas. Nos gusta disfrutar de ellos. Sin embargo, la belleza de nuestro Dios es tan increíble; Él nos prometió su misericordia y bondad. San Pablo escribe tan sólo para darnos una idea de que cuando dice: "Cosas que ojo no vio, ni oído oyó, ni ha entrado en la mente de un hombre de imaginar lo que Dios ha guardado para los que le aman." (1Co 2: 9). Entonces podemos unir San Agustín y decir: "Tarde te amé, oh Belleza siempre antigua y siempre nueva, ultimamente te amé."
